

INDEX

Symbols

(hash mark), 15, 17

! (logical NOT) operator, 38

A

access points, wireless

FreeBSD setup, 55–56

OpenBSD setup, 53–55

PF ruleset for, 56–57

with three or more interfaces, 57–58

ACK (acknowledgment) packets

ALTQ priority queues, 143–144

class-based bandwidth allocation, 145–146

HFSC algorithm, 129, 130, 148

two-priority configuration, 126–127

adaptive.end value, 194, 200

adaptive firewalls, 99–101

adaptive.start value, 200

advbase parameter, 159, 161

advskew parameter, 159, 161, 166–167

aggressive value, 201

ALTQ (alternate queuing) framework

basic concepts, 141–142

class-based bandwidth allocation, 145–146

handling unwanted traffic,
150–151

HFSC traffic shaper, 146–149

overview, 124, 141

priority-based queues, 143–144

queue schedulers, 142

queuing for servers in DMZ, 149–150

replacement of, 10

setup, 142–143

transitioning to priorities and queues from, 138–140

anchors

authpf program, 63

defined, 93

for ftp-proxy program, 46, 47

relayd daemon, 75–76

restructuring ruleset with, 93–95

antispoof tool, 202–203

atomic ruleset load, 23

authpf program

authenticating gateway, 63–65

overview, 62–63

public wireless networks, 65–66

auth_web macro, 65–66

automated conversions, 9

B

backup tables for services, 77, 79

bandwidth

actual available, 149

class-based allocation of, 145–146

queues for allocation of

DMZ network with traffic
shaping, 134–137

fixed, 129–130

flexible, 131

HFSC algorithm, 129

overview, 127–129

total usable, 128–129

bandwidth parameter, 132

Beck, Bob, 122

Berkeley Software Distribution, 4

See also FreeBSD; OpenBSD

blacklistd daemon, 105

blacklisting, 121–122

logging, 110

managing lists with spamdb, 118

overview, 107–108

setting up, 108–109

- block all rule, 20, 71
- block in rule, 18
- blocknonip option, 89
- block-policy option, 194–195
- block rule, 18
- borrow keyword, 146
- Brauer, Henning, 6, 141, 185
- brconfig command, 89
- bridge (4) facility, 51
- bridges
 - MAC address filtering, 51
 - overview, 88–89
 - rulesets, 91–92
 - setting up
 - on FreeBSD, 90–91
 - on OpenBSD, 89–90
 - virtual, 92
- brute-force attacks
 - diverting to minimal-bandwidth queues, 105
 - endless daemon, 106
 - responding to, 98–99
 - setting up adaptive firewall, 99–101
 - sharing data, 103–104
 - tidying tables with pfctl, 102
 - traffic shaping, 137
 - using ALTQ to handle, 150–151
- BSD (Berkeley Software Distribution), 4.
 - See also* FreeBSD; OpenBSD
 - Linux vs., 7–8
 - NetBSD, 6, 7
 - online resources, 209–211
 - print resources, 212–213
- BSD Unix, 4
- bugs, 2
- burst value, 133

C

- Cappuccio, Chris, 141
- CARP (Common Address Redundancy Protocol)
 - failover
 - adding pfsync, 162–163
 - kernel options, 156–157
 - network interface setup, 158–162
 - overview, 154
 - redundant pair of gateways, 154–156
 - sysctl values, 157–158
 - load balancing, 165–168
 - relayd daemon, 81
 - carpdev option, 156, 158, 164
 - carpeer option, 160
 - Cho, Kenjiro, 141
 - class-based queues (cbq), 142, 145–146
 - client_out macro, 35
 - cloneable interfaces, 58, 175
 - collectors, NetFlow, 186–187
 - collect statements, 182
 - Common Address Redundancy Protocol. See CARP
 - complicated networks
 - bridges
 - FreeBSD setup, 90–91
 - OpenBSD setup, 89–90
 - overview, 88–89
 - rulesets, 91–92
 - NAT
 - DMZ with, 82–83
 - filtering on interface groups, 86–87
 - overview, 81–82
 - redirection for load balancing, 83
 - single NATed network, 84–86
 - nonroutable IPv4 addresses, 92–95
 - packet tagging, 87–88
 - routable IPv4 addresses
 - load balancing with relayd, 75–81
 - overview, 68–72
 - redirection to address pools, 74–75
 - using DMZ, 72–74
- configuration files
 - FreeBSD, 16, 17
 - OpenBSD, 15
 - overview, 13
 - relayd daemon, 76–77
- conservative optimization setting, 201
- content filtering, 107
- control messages, 40–41

Core Force project, 6
cron command, 2

D

DDoS (distributed denial-of-service)
 attack, 195
debugging. See also logging
 debug option, 56, 198–199
 rulesets, 205–208
defq subqueue, 130
denial-of-service (DoS) attacks, 93, 176 de Raadt, Theo, 217
developer blogs, 211–212
dhclient command, 61
dhcpd program, 39–40, 57
dhcpleased program, 59
DHCP server, 39
distributed denial-of-service (DDoS)
 attack, 195
divert(4) interface, 47 divert-to command, 47
Dixon, Jason, 11
dmesg command, 52
DMZ (demilitarized zone)
 with NAT, 82–83
 queuing for servers in, 149–150
 routable IPv4 addresses, 72–74
 testing setup, 203–205 with traffic shaping, 134–137 dnctl utility, 124
DNS, 68, 120
doas command, 14, 38–39
domain name resolution, 19, 21, 23
domain names, using in rulesets, 37–38
donations, 214
DoS (denial-of-service) attacks, 93, 176
DragonFly BSD, 6, 7 dropped packets, 134
dummynet traffic shaping, 124

E

echo requests/replies, 41–44 egress group, 34, 86–87
encapsulation interface, 58
endlesssh daemon, 106
Engen, Vegard, 65
expiring table entries, 102

exporting brute-force data, 103–104
ext_if macro, 33–34

F

failover with CARP
 adding pfsync, 162–163
 kernel options, 156–157
 network interface setup on FreeBSD, 160–162
 network interface setup on OpenBSD, 158–160
 overview, 154
 redundant pair of gateways, 154–156
 sysctl values, 157–158
fallback ruleset, enabling, 17 false positives, 110, 114, 117, 122
fdescfs, 111
FIFO (first in, first out), 126, 142 file servers, 68–69
file transfer protocol. See FTP firewalls. See also bridges adaptive, 100–101
 simple gateway, 27–29
first in, first out (FIFO), 126, 142 flags S/SA keep state rule, 22 floating state policy, 195
Floeter, Reyk, 75, 191
flowd package, 186, 187–191
flowd-reader program, 187–190 flow specifications, 140–141 flow-tools package, 186
flush global state-tracking option, 99
FQ-CoDel, 140–141
fragment reassembly options, 201
frag value, 200
FreeBSD
 bridge setup, 90–91
 buying swag, 214
 CARP on, 157–158, 160–162
 client setup, 61–62
 configuration files, 16, 17
 configuring access point's PF
 ruleset, 56–57
 dummynet traffic shaping, 124
 ftp-proxy program, 46–47
 gateway setup, 32, 34–35
 managing blacklists, 105
 NAT syntax for, 31

FreeBSD (continued)

- PF setup on, 15–17
- redirection to pool of addresses, 74–75
- using `spamd` in greylisting mode, 112
- wireless network setup, 55–56

FreeBSD Handbook, 16, 34

FTP (file transfer protocol)

- ftp-proxy with diversion or redirection, 46–47
- overview, 45–46
- variations on ftp-proxy setup, 47–48
- wireless network setup, 57, 58

ftp-proxy command, 46–48, 57

ftpproxy_flags variable, 46, 47

fw_update script, 52

G

gateway, packet-filtering.

See packet-filtering gateway global settings

- block-policy option, 194–195
- fragment reassembly
 - options, 201
- limit option, 197–198
- optimization option, 201
- ruleset-optimization option, 199–200
- skip option, 195
- state-defaults option, 196
- state-policy option, 195–196
- syncookies option, 196–197
- testing, 198–199
- timeout option, 200–201

greyexp value, 112–113

greylisting

- keeping lists in sync, 119
- managing lists, 118
- online resources, 212–213
- overview, 110–111
- in practice, 114–115
- setting up, 111–113, 122
- unusual situations with, 120–121
- why it works, 113

greytrapping, 110, 116–118, 122

GUI tools, 9

H

Hail Mary Cloud, 100

hardware

- support, 215–218
- for wireless networks, 52–53

Harris, Evan, 110

Hartmeier, Daniel, 4, 5, 127, 138, 143–144, 182

hash mark (#), 15, 17

HFSC (Hierarchical Fair Service Curve) algorithm

ALTQ discipline, 142

ALTQ traffic shaping, 146–149

DMZ network with traffic shaping, 134–137 flows specifications, 140–141

queues for bandwidth allocation, 129–134

transitioning from ALTQ to priorities and queues, 139–140

hfsc queues, 142, 146–149

high-latency optimization setting, 201

honeypots, creating, 104–105

hostapd program, 55–56

host command, 19, 37

hostnames, using in rulesets, 37–38

HTTP, 77, 80–81, 109, 190

HTTPS, 80–81

I

IBM Christmas Tree EXEC worm, 2

ICMP

- class-based bandwidth allocation, 146–147

filtering, 41

general discussion, 40–41

letting all traffic through, 41

letting ping through, 42

overview, 40–41

path MTU discovery, 43–44

ping command, 42

stopping probes, 42

traceroute command, 43

traffic prioritizing, 130

ICMP6, 41, 42, 43

icmp queue, 130, 146–147

IEEE 802.11, 50

if-bound state policy, 195–196

- if_bridge module, 89
- ifconfig command
 - bridge setup, 51, 89–91
 - CARP interface configuration, 159–160, 161, 162
 - CARP load balancing, 166–168
 - interface groups, 86–87
 - path MTU discovery, 43
 - pfsync protocol, 163
 - running status of interfaces, 32–33
 - setting up NetFlow sensor, 185
 - wireless networks, 50, 53–56, 59–62
- ifconfig group option, 86–87
- ifstated interface state daemon, 165
- ILOVEYOU worm, 2
- importing brute-force data, 103–104
- interface groups, 34, 86–87
- interface-specific rules, 28–29
- Interface Stats statistics, 24
- interval value, 200
- int_if macro, 57
- IP-based load balancing, 165–168
- IPFilter subsystem, 4, 5, 10
- ip mode, 165
- IPsec, 58
- ip-stealth mode, 165–166
- ip-unicast mode, 165
- IPv4
 - enabling dhcpd direct access, 39–40
 - ICMP protocol, 41
 - NAT redirection, 81–88
 - nonroutable addresses, 93–95
 - packet forwarding, 32
 - redirection to pool of addresses, 74–75
 - routable addresses
 - load balancing with relayd, 75–81
 - overview, 68–72
 - redirection to address pools, 74–75
 - using DMZ, 72–74
 - wireless network setup, 54
- IPv6
 - address range allocation, 69
 - ICMP6, 41
 - letting all traffic through, 41
 - NAT redirection, 83

- NAT vs., 29–31
- packet forwarding, 32
- path MTU discovery, 44
- redirection to pool of addresses, 75
- wireless network setup, 54, 59–61, 62

K

- KAME project, 30–31
- keep state flags S/SA rule, 18
- keep state rule, 29, 44, 70
- kernel memory, 197–198
- kldload command, 112

L

- labels rule, 177–179
- leaf queues, 133, 140–141
- license audit, 5
- limit option, 197–198
- linkshare parameter, 147
- Linux, 7–8
- lists, 19–20
- load balancing
 - CARP for, 165–168
 - redirection for
 - IPv4 addresses, 74–75
 - NAT, 83
 - to pool of addresses, 74–75
 - with relayd daemon, 75–81
- log (all) clause, 173–174
- logging
 - all packets, 173–174
 - graphing traffic with pfstat tool, 182–184
 - legal implications of, 174
 - monitoring with pftop, 181–182
 - monitoring with systat, 179–181
- NetFlow
 - flowd collector, 186–191
 - overview, 184
 - setting up sensor, 185–186
- overview, 170–172
- packet path through rulesets, 172–173
- to several pflog interfaces, 175
- SNMP, 191
- with spamd, 109
- to syslog, 175–177
- tracking statistics with labels, 177–179

- logical NOT (!) operator, 38
- log keyword, 170, 175
- log (matches) rule, 172–173
- Lucas, Michael, 81, 184

M

- MAC addresses
 - filtering, 51, 62
 - IP-based load balancing, 165–166
- MacOS, 5
- macros
 - defining local network, 31
 - open networks, 65–66
 - using in rulesets, 19–20
- mail servers
 - with NAT
 - DMZ with, 82–83
 - filtering on interface groups, 86–87
 - overview, 81–82
 - packet tagging, 87–88
 - redirection for load balancing, 83
 - single NATed network, 84–86
 - routable IPv4 addresses
 - load balancing with relayd, 75–81
 - overview, 68–72
 - redirection to address pools, 74–75
 - using DMZ, 72–74
- main queue, 130, 132, 133
- management information base (MIB), 191
- man pages, 11
- martians macro, 93
- match rules, 34, 36
 - ALTQ queues, 142
 - HFSC traffic shaper, 148
 - NAT redirection, 82, 85
 - packet tagging, 87–88
 - prio priority scheme, 126
 - queue assignment, 128, 131, 132–133, 144–145
 - two-priority configuration, 127
- maximum transmission unit (MTU), 43
- max-src-conn-rate state-tracking option, 99, 104

- max-src-conn state-tracking option, 99, 104
- McBride, Ryan, 6
- MIB (management information base), 191
- migrating to PF, 7–11
- Miller, Damien, 187
- Morris worm, 2
- MTU (maximum transmission unit), 43
- multicast MAC address, 165–166

N

- name servers, 69, 71
- NAT (network address translation)
 - basic authenticating gateway, 63
 - DMZ with, 73, 82–83
 - filtering on interface groups, 86–87
 - IPv6 vs., 29–31
 - overview, 81–82
 - packet tagging, 87–88
 - redirection for load balancing, 83
 - redirection to pool of addresses, 75
 - single NATed network, 84–86
- nat rule, 34
- NAT-T (NAT Traversal), 58
- nat-to option, 34, 36, 85, 172
- neighbradv (neighbor advertisements) type, 44
- neighbrsol (neighbor solicitations) type, 44
- NetBSD, 6, 7
- NetFlow
 - choosing collectors, 186–187
 - data collecting, reporting, and analysis, 186–191
 - overview, 184
 - setting up sensor, 185–186
- net.inet.carp.log variable, 158
- net.inet.carp.preempt variable, 157, 159, 161
- net-snmp package, 191
- network address translation. See NAT
- network hygiene, 202–203
- nfdump tool, 186
- nixspam blacklist, 109, 122
- nodelay option, 80

- nohup command, 176
- nospamd table, 112, 120–121
- NTP, 36
- nwid parameter, 59

O

- Obser, Florian, 50
- OpenBSD
 - bridge setup, 89–90
 - client setup, 59–61
 - configuration files, 15
 - configuring CARP, 157–158
 - gateway setup, 32–34
 - history of, 4–5
 - installing to run PF, 7
 - NAT syntax for, 31
 - purchasing, 214
 - setting up network interfaces for
 - CARP on, 158–160
 - setting up PF on, 14–15
 - wireless network setup, 53–55
- operating system fingerprint, 138, 151
- OPNSense, 9
- optimization option, 201
- out-of-order MX use, 119
- overload <bruteforce> state-tracking
 - option, 99
- overload rules, 99–101, 137, 151

P

- packet capture (pcap) format, 170
- packet-filtering gateway
 - authpf program, 63–65
 - configuring wireless access point,
 - 56–57
 - defining local network, 31
 - FTP, 45–48
 - NAT vs. IPv6, 29–31
 - in/out rules, 28–29
 - point of policy enforcement, 36–37
 - redundant pair of, 154–156
 - setting up, 32–36
 - simple, 27–38
 - tables, 38–40
 - testing ruleset, 37–38
 - troubleshooting-friendly networks
 - filtering traffic, 41
 - path MTU discovery, 43–44

- ping command, 42
 - stopping probes at gateway, 42
 - traceroute command, 43
- packet forwarding, 32
- packet tagging, 87–88
- pass all rule, 23
- pass in rule, 28–29, 35
- pass out rule, 18, 29
- passphrase for CARP interfaces,
 - 160, 162
- passtime value, 112
- path MTU discovery, 41, 43–44
- pcap (packet capture) format, 170
- persist keyword, 38
- PF (Packet Filter) subsystem
 - configuration, 28–29
 - debugging ruleset, 205–207
 - frequently answered questions,
 - 8–11
 - haiku, 11
 - history of, 4–6
 - installing BSD systems, 7
 - IPFilter and, 10
 - Linux vs. BSD, 7–8
 - migrating to, 7–11
 - overview, 3
 - performance improvements, 6
 - resources, 11
 - rule syntax changes, 10
 - setting up
 - on FreeBSD, 15–17
 - on OpenBSD, 14–15
- pfctl command line
 - debug settings, 199, 205–207
 - disabling PF, 14
 - displaying system information,
 - 23–24
 - enabling PF, 14–15
 - HFSC traffic shaper, 148–149
 - limit settings, 198
 - manipulating anchor contents,
 - 93–94
 - overview, 13
 - ruleset optimization, 200
 - sharing miscreant data, 103
 - showing queues and traffic,
 - 133–134
 - tidying tables with, 102

- pfctl command line (continued)
 - timeouts, 200–201
 - tracking statistics with labels, 177–179
 - traffic shaping, 144
 - verbose output, 22
- pf_fallback_rules_* settings, 17
- pflogd logging daemon, 170, 175, 176
- pflog(4) interface
 - NetFlow data collecting, reporting, and analysis, 186–191
 - overview, 184
 - setting up NetFlow sensor, 185–186
- pf_rules= setting, 15
- pfSense, 9
- pfstat tool, 182–184
- pfsync protocol, 162–163
- pftop command, 163, 181–182
- phishing email, 107
- ping command, 42
- ping of death, 41
- point of policy enforcement, 36–37
- port ranges, 43
- PPP over Ethernet (PPPoE), 33
- prio priority scheme, 125–126
- priority and queuing system
 - FQ-CoDel flows, 140–141
 - handling unwanted traffic, 137–138
 - queues for bandwidth allocation
 - DMZ network with traffic
 - shaping, 134–137
 - fixed, 129–130
 - HFSC algorithm, 129
 - overview, 127–129
 - queue definition, 130, 132
 - ruleset, 131, 132–134
 - upper and lower bounds with bursts, 131
 - setting traffic priorities, 125–127
 - transitioning from ALTQ to, 138–140
- priority-based queues (priq), 142, 143–145
- proactive defense
 - countermeasures
 - blacklistd daemon, 105
 - creating honeypots, 104–105
 - diverting to minimal-bandwidth queues, 105
 - endlesssh daemon, 106
 - sharing miscreant data, 103–104
 - spam, 106–122
 - blacklisting, 107–110
 - detecting out-of-order MX use, 119–120
 - greylisting, 110–115, 120–121
 - greytrapping, 116–118
 - managing lists with spamdb, 118–120
 - scripted maintenance for nospamd, 121–122
 - tips for fighting, 121–122
 - updating whitelists, 115–116
 - SSH brute-force attacks, 98–101
 - responding to, 98–99
 - setting up adaptive firewalls, 99–101
 - tidying tables with pfctl, 102
- protocol handling, 80–81
- public wireless networks, 65–66

Q

- q_def queue, 144–145
- qdns queue, 133
- qlimit parameter, 132, 134, 147
- q_pri queue, 144–145
- queues
 - for bandwidth allocation
 - DMZ network with traffic
 - shaping, 134–137
 - fixed, 129–130
 - flexible, 131
 - HFSC algorithm, 129
 - overview, 127–129
 - class-based, 145–146
 - handling unwanted traffic, 137–138
 - operating system fingerprints, 138, 151
 - syntax for defining, 128
 - systat program view, 179
- queue-scheduler algorithms (disciplines)
 - class-based bandwidth allocation, 145–146

- HFSC algorithm, 146–149
 - overview, 142
- priority-based queues, 143–145
- quick rules, 35–36

R

- random early detection (RED), 143
- Ranum, Marcus, 19
- rcctl command, 46, 78
- rc script, 15, 17, 32
- rdr-to keyword, 47, 82
- realtime parameter, 147
- reassemble tcp option, 202
- redirection
 - FTP, 46–48
 - for load balancing
 - IPv4 addresses, 74–75
 - with NAT, 83
 - NAT, 81–88
 - public networks, 65–66
 - with relayd daemon, 75–81
- red keyword, 146
- redundancy and resource availability
 - CARP-based failover
 - adding pfsync, 162–163
 - kernel options, 156–157
 - network interface setup, 158–162
 - overview, 154
 - redundant pair of gateways, 154–156
 - setting sysctl values, 157–158
 - CARP for load balancing, 165–168
 - ruleset guidelines for, 164–165
- Reed, Darren, 4
- relayctl administration program, 78–79
- relayd daemon, 75–81, 166
- return value, 194
- Ritschard, Pierre-Yves, 75
- rootq queue, 132, 133
- round-robin redirection, 74–75
- routeradv (router advertisements), 44
- routersol (router solicitations), 44
- rtadvd daemon, 57
- ruleset-optimization option, 199–200
- rulesets
 - atomic load, 23
 - basic authenticating gateway, 63–65

- for bridges, 91–92
- checking rules, 22–23
- debugging, 205–208
- enabling minimal fallback, 17
- evaluation of, 18
- filtering on interface groups, 86–87
- gateway setup, 33–35
- guidelines for redundant
 - configurations, 164–165
- interface-specific rules, 28–29
- logging packet path through, 172–173
- NAT redirection, 81–82
- NetFlow sensor setup, 185–186
- packet tagging, 87–88
- quick rules, 35–36
- relayd anchor, 76
- reloading and looking for errors
 - in, 21–22
- sample test case sequence, 205
- simple rules, 29
- stricter baseline, 20–21
- systat program view, 180
- testing, 19, 23, 37–38
- using domain names or hostnames
 - in, 37–38
- using lists and macros, 19–20
- web and mail servers, 69–71
- writing minimal, 18–19

S

- sample configurations, 211–212
- satellite optimization setting, 201
- SCP, 44
- scrub keyword, 201, 202
- Secure Shell. See SSH
- self keyword, 34
- Sender Policy Framework (SPF)
 - records, 120
- set prio constructs, 138–139
- set skip on lo rule, 15, 17, 195
- setup configuration, 193–208
 - cleaning up traffic, 202–203
 - debugging ruleset, 205–208
 - displaying information about system, 23–24
 - enabling PF, 14–17

- setup configuration (continued)
 - global options and settings
 - block-policy option, 194–195
 - fragment reassembly
 - options, 201
 - limit option, 197–198
 - optimization option, 201
 - ruleset-optimization option, 199–200
 - skip option, 195
 - state-defaults option, 196
 - state-policy option, 195–196
 - syncookies option, 196–197
 - testing, 198–199
 - timeout option, 200–201
 - testing, 203–205
- SFTP, 45
- show command, 103
- Simple Network Management Protocol (SNMP), 191
- skip option, 195
- SMTP, 71, 106. See also spam
- smtpctl program, 120
- Snijders, Job, 191
- SNMP (Simple Network Management Protocol), 191
- Solaris, 5
- sorry table, 77
- spam
 - blacklisting, 107–110
 - detecting out-of-order MX use, 119–120
 - greylisting, 110–115, 120–121
 - greytrapping, 116–118
 - list management, 118–119
 - logging, 109
 - queue assignment, 133, 138, 151
 - resources, 212–213
 - scripted maintenance for
 - nospamd, 121
 - stuttering, 107
 - tarpitting, 107
 - tips for fighting, 121–122
 - updating whitelists, 115–116
- SpamAssassin, 107
- spamd tool
 - greylisting, 110–115, 120–121
 - greytrapping, 116–118
 - overview, 118
 - updating lists, 118
- spamd spam-deferral daemon
 - blacklisting, 108–109
 - detecting out-of-order MX use, 119–120
 - greylisting
 - overview, 110–111
 - in practice, 114–115
 - setting up, 111–113
 - unusual situations with, 120–121
 - greytrapping, 116–118
 - list management with spamd, 118–120
 - logging, 109
 - online resources, 212–213
 - queue assignment, 133
 - scripted maintenance for
 - nospamd, 121
 - updating whitelists, 115–116
- spamlogd whitelist updater, 115–116
- SPF (Sender Policy Framework)
 - records, 120
- spoofing, 202–203
- src.track value, 200
- SSH (Secure Shell)
 - authpf program, 62
 - brute-force attacks
 - diverting to minimal-bandwidth queues, 105
 - endlessd daemon, 105
 - responding to, 98–99
 - setting up adaptive firewall, 99–101
 - sharing data about, 103–104
 - tidying tables with pfctl, 102
 - traffic shaping, 137
 - using ALTQ to handle, 150–151
 - state synchronization, 164
 - traffic prioritizing, 130
 - VPNs, 58
- ssh queue, 130, 131, 146
- state-defaults option, 196
- state-policy option, 195–196
- state tables, 18, 24, 162–163, 179–180
- State Table statistics, 24

- state-tracking options, 99–100, 137, 151, 196
- sticky-address option, 75, 77
- stuttering, 107
- subqueues, 128
- sudo command, 14, 16–17
- symon utility, 184
- SYNACK response, 196–197
- syncookies option, 70, 196–197
- SYN-flood attacks, 70, 197
- SYN packets, 151
- synproxy state option, 70
- syntax rule change, 10
- sysctl command, 32, 89, 157–158
- syslog protocol, 175–177
- sysstat command, 133, 163, 179–181
- system information, displaying, 23–24

T

tables

- backup, 77, 79
- dhcpd(8) direct access, 39–40
- expiring entries, 101
- overview, 38–39
- redirection to, 74–75
- sharing miscreant data, 103
- state, 18, 24, 162–163, 179–180

tarpitting, 107

TCP

- ALTQ priority queues, 143
- syncookies, 70, 196–197
- tcpdump tool, 207–208
- two-priority configuration, 126
- UDP vs., 21–22

tcpdump program, 170–172, 176, 207, 208

TCP/IP

- basic authenticating gateway, 63–65
- FTP, 44–48
- NetFlow
 - choosing collectors, 186–187
 - data collecting, reporting, and analysis, 186–191
 - overview, 184
 - setting up sensor, 185–186
- total usable bandwidth, 128–129
- troubleshooting-friendly networks, 40–44
- wireless networks, 50, 59, 60–61

testing, 52–53, 203–205

timeout option, 200–201

TLS, 80–81

to keyword, 28–29

ToS (type of service) flag, 127, 130, 143

total usable bandwidth, 128–129

traceroute6 command, 43

traceroute command, 43

traffic, cleaning up, 202–203

traffic shaping

- with ALTQ

- basic concepts, 141–142

- class-based queues, 145–146

- handling unwanted traffic, 150–151

- HFSC algorithm, 146–149

- overview, 141

- priority-based queues, 143–145

- queue schedulers, 142

- queuing for servers in DMZ, 149–150

- setting up, 142–143

DMZ network with, 134–137

FQ-CoDel flows, 140–141

overview, 123–124

priority and queuing system

- fixed allocations, 129–131

- flexible allocations, 131–134

- handling unwanted traffic, 137–138

- HFSC algorithm, 129

- overview, 127–129

- setting priorities, 125–127

- transitioning from ALTQ to, 138–140

trojans, 2

troubleshooting-friendly networks

- filtering ICMP, 41

- FTP, 45–48

- overview, 40–41

- path MTU discovery, 43–44

- ping command, 42

- stopping probes at gateway, 42

- traceroute command, 43

two-priority configuration, 126–127, 138, 139

type of service (ToS) flag, 127, 130, 143

U

UDP, 21–22, 58, 185, 188 up parameter, 54, 59
upperlimit parameter, 147 user_ip macro, 64

V

veb(4) virtual Ethernet bridge system, 92
verbose output
network flows, 188, 189–190 pfctl administration tool, 22
relayd daemon, 78
spamd spam-deferral daemon, 109, 114–115
vhid (virtual host ID) parameter, 158, 160–161
virtual Ethernet bridge network interface, 92
Virtual Router Redundancy Protocol
(VRRP), 154
viruses, 2
VLANs (virtual local area networks),
72–73, 163
VoIP (Voice over Internet Protocol), 126
VPNs (virtual private networks), 58 vport(4) virtual Ethernet interfaces, 92

W

webpool table, 74–75, 77, 79, 83 web servers
with NAT
DMZ with, 82–83
filtering on interface groups, 86–87
overview, 81–82
packet tagging, 87–88
redirection for load
balancing, 83
single NATed network, 84–86

routable IPv4 addresses
load balancing with relayd, 75–81
overview, 68–72
redirection to address pools,
74–75
using DMZ, 72–74

WEP (Wired Equivalent Privacy), 51–52

whiteexp value, 113

whitelists

defining, 108–109
managing lists with spamdb, 118
setting up spamd in greylisting mode, 111–112
updating, 115–116

Wi-Fi Protected Access. See WPA

wireless networks, 49–66

authenticating gateway, 63–65

authpf program, 62–63

hardware for, 52–53

IEEE 802.11-style, 50

IPSec and VPN solutions, 58 privacy mechanisms

MAC address filtering, 51

WEP, 51–52

WPA, 52

public, 65–66

setting up

access point PF ruleset, 56–57 access points with three or more interfaces, 57–58

client side, 59–62

on FreeBSD, 55–56

as interface or subnet, 50

on OpenBSD, 53–55

wlan(4) driver, 55

wlan group, 86–87

worms, 2

WPA (Wi-Fi Protected Access)

FreeBSD setup, 55–56, 61–62

OpenBSD setup, 53–55, 59–61

overview, 52

wpakey parameter, 54, 59

wpa_supplicant program, 50, 61